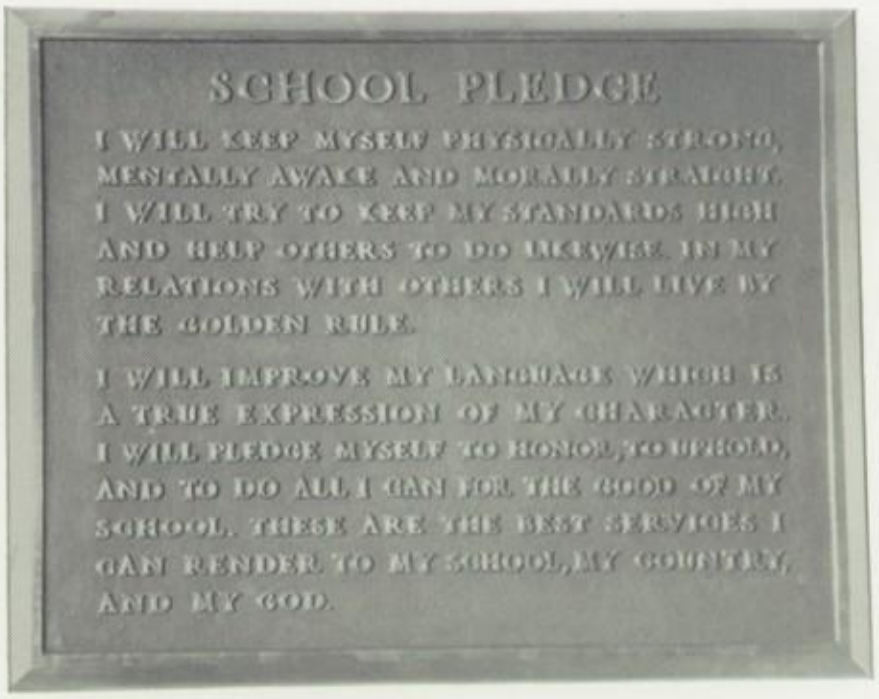
THE SCHOOL PLEDGE

I will keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight. I will try to keep my standards high and help others to do likewise. In my relations with others I will live by the golden rule. I will improve my language which is a true expression of my character. I will pledge myself to honor, to uphold, and to do all I can for the good of my school. These are the best services I can render to my school, my country, and my God.

HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL PLEDGE

Since the early days of Milton Hershey School, then the Hershey Industrial School, the boys have repeated, weekly, a pledge originated by George C. Copenhaver, the first superintendent. Mr. Copenhaver initiated this pledge in order to give his boys a feeling of obligation to do their best. The original pledge was revised during the spring of 1952 to its present state. Originally, it contained another phrase than that concerning the Golden Rule. This phrase was, "I will help others to get the comforts of life and happiness that are rightfully theirs." Because of changing times, this phrase made little sense to the boys, so instead they promised to follow the Golden Rule. At least once each week, and usually more often, each boy repeats this pledge, and normally tries to follow it. Milton Hershey School has done its best to aid its boys in this by applying the facets of the pledge to the daily program. A summary of this program is as as follows: "I will keep myself physically strong" . . . Vigorous athletics and good exercise in the chore program keep bodies in good condition. "Mentally awake" . . . A challenging program keeps minds alert, "and morally straight." Religious and moral codes are an important part of daily life. "I will try to keep my standards high and help others to do likewise." The boys are taught appreciation of their own achievements and the satisfaction derived from helping someone else to achieve. "In my relations with others, I will live by the Golden Rule." Boys learn quickly that the best way to be happy is to make others happy. "I will improve my language which is a true expression of my character." . . . What you say is a reflection of what you are. "I will pledge myself to honor, to uphold, and to do all I can for the good of my school." The school is only what the boys make it. They have the power to make it great or poor. They want it to be great, and so far have done well. "These are the best services I can render to my school, my country, and my God." . . . There is little explanation necessary required for this. When Mr. Copenhaver originated the School Pledge so many years ago, he probably had no idea that it would be such a long lasting tradition here at MHS. It has become such an important part of school life that most of the boys are taught the School Pledge before they learn anything else, as it shows them the way they are expected to live here at MHS. All of the boys know of the guidance the Pledge can give them, and their success in the school depends upon how they follow this guidance. Perhaps Mr. Copenhaver should have included the boys themselves in the last line of the pledge, for following the pledge is also a service to him who follows it. In summation, the School Pledge is an expression of the spirit of Milton Hershey School, has followed the school down from its early days, and has served to guide students and faculty alike.

This plaque was presented to Milton Hershey School by the class of 1964, as their traditional gift from the graduating class. The plaque is made of carved bronze and occupies a place of honor in the foyer of the junior-senior high school building. Here it can be seen by visitors to the school and by students passing through the halls. It is a daily reminder of the principles on which Milton Hershey School is based.



SCHOOL PLEDGE
I WILL KEEP MYSELF PHYSICALLY STRONG, MENTALLY AWAKE AND MORALLY STRAIGHT. I WILL TRY TO KEEP MY STANDARDS HIGH AND HELP OTHERS TO DO LIKEWISE. IN MY RELATIONS WITH OTHERS I WILL LIVE BY THE GOLDEN RULE.
I WILL IMPROVE MY LANGUAGE WHICH IS A TRUE EXPRESSION OF MY CHARACTER. I WILL PLEDGE MYSELF TO HONOR, TO UPHOLD, AND TO DO ALL I CAN FOR THE GOOD OF MY SCHOOL. THESE ARE THE BEST SERVICES I CAN RENDER TO MY SCHOOL, MY COUNTRY, AND MY GOD.

CLASS GIFT— This bronze plaque of the School Pledge was presented by the CLASS OF 1964.

DR. SAMUEL F. HINKLE

A TRIBUTE

Among the great attributes of our School Founder was his ability to gather outstanding men about him and to depend upon them for the success of his enterprises. Samuel F. Hinkle was such a man to Milton S. Hershey in his role as Chief Chemist and Director of Research of Hershey Chocolate Corporation from 1924 to 1947. His greatest contributions to Mr. Hershey's dreams came after Mr. Hershey was no longer with us. From 1947 to 1956 Dr. Hinkle served as Plant Manager of Hershey Chocolate Corporation, and in 1956 he was elected to the position of President. For the past three years he has also been Board Chairman of the Corporation.

His service to the Hershey Chocolate Corporation is in itself highly significant to Milton Hershey School, for it is through the marked success of this industry that the school has attained its present scope of opportunities to boys. In addition, Dr. Hinkle, while serving as a member of the Board of Managers, has been a personal friend of Milton Hershey School through his attention to school policy and his vital concern about the quality of program for the students.

Dr. Hinkle now anticipates retirement after forty-one years of loyal association with Milton Hershey and his associates. Through the years he has received many awards and honors in recognition of his professional leadership and his civic and humanitarian contributions. Equally signifigant are the expressions of appreciation of students, staff, and administration of Milton Hershey School for the personal interest which he has shown in all phases of the school program. A warm welcome continues to await Dr. Hinkle and Mrs. Hinkle at all school functions. They are invited to remain always an intimate part of the school family. We extend our best wishes to them for many enjoyable years of retirement.

DR. JOHN O. HERSHEY, PRESIDENT

The chief liaison officer between the Board of Managers and The Milton Hershey School is our President, Dr. John O. Hershey, who was born and reared in Troy, Ohio. In 1939 he and Mrs. Hershey began work as houseparents at student home Bonniemead. Rising rapidly, Dr. Hershey served as a classroom teacher and a vocational guidance counselor at the junior-senior high school. He became Dean of Boys in 1944 and three years later Director of Admissions and Student Personnel. In 1959 he became Superintendent of the school, and later President. As President of the school, Dr. Hershey has initiated many of the improvements over the past several years. An expanded building renovating has increased his responsibilities many fold.

As an active member of the community, Dr. Hershey has held the following positions: President of the Association of Institute for Children, President of the Welfare Conference, a member of Phi Delta Kappa, and Rotary Club. Dr. Hershey earned his A.B. from Taylor University and his M.A. and Ed.D degrees from the University of Pennsylvania.

M.H.S. PROGRESS IN THE MAKING

Serving Milton Hershey School as Headmaster, Dr. Richard Rudisill correlates information from the departments of the school and insures a smooth running system. Dr. Rudisill was born in Reigelsville, Pennsylvania and is a graduate of John Harris High School, in Harrisburg. In 1947, he received the B.S. in Education degree from Gettysburg. After obtaining the M.S. in Education degree from the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Rudisill began his association with MHS in 1951. Having served as Dean of Boys and Director of the Senior Home Life Division, Dr. Rudisill became Assistant Superintendent of Milton Hershey School in 1958. In 1963, Dr. Rudisill received his Doctor of Education degree from Pennsylvania State University, and later that year was appointed Headmaster of the school. He has proven himself a truly understanding friend as well as a good administrator. Dr. Rudisill's many responsibilities include the supervision of the educational, business, and student home divisions of Milton Hershey School.

DR. RICHARD A. RUDISILL, HEADMASTER

EDUCATIONAL DIRECTION

William R. Fisher
Director of Secondary Education

William R. Fisher, Director of Secondary Education at our school, is a graduate of the class of 1950. Mr. Fisher came back to his alma mater in 1956, where he taught English and German in the Senior High. In 1962 he was promoted to Assistant Director of Secondary Education with his responsibilities greatly increased. Now as Director of Secondary Education his duties include the improvement of instruction at our school and the supervision and co-ordination of the entire educational program in the junior-senior high school. He gives special attention to the summer school program and has the responsibility of seeing that policies and procedures governing the operations of this school are effectively carried out. His careful planning and attention to details have resulted in a sound educational program at Milton Hershey School.

As Director of Elementary Education Mr. William A. Hoover is a leading factor in molding the lives of the younger Milton Hershey men. A native of Winburn, Pennsylvania, Mr. Hoover served three years in the armed forces and several years as a newspaperman. He joined the Milton Hershey School family in 1951. After teaching sixth grade in the junior-senior high school, he was moved to the Fanny B. Hershey Memorial School, where he taught for several years. When Wilbert Moorehead retired as principal, Mr. Hoover succeeded him. Working closely with houseparents and teachers, he prepares boys for their further education on the Hill. All through their beginning years he lays the foundation for what the boys will be in the future. His duties include the supervision of curricula and the advancement of elementary school pupils. Mr. Hoover has helped many of our boys grasp the fundamentals needed to solve problems in adjusting to our school.

William A. Hoover
Director of Elementary Education

Carl E. Stump
Assistant Director of Secondary Education

Mr. Carl E. Stump, Assistant Director of Secondary Education, is new on the Administrative Staff, but has been associated with Milton Hershey School since 1956. Born in Campbelltown, Pennsylvania, Mr. Stump graduated from Hershey High School in 1943. After a twenty-eight month tour of duty in the Navy Mr. Stump entered the Pennsylvania State University and was graduated a B.S. in Vocational Education in 1949. He taught at Mechanicsburg High School for seven years before joining our school family in 1956. Mr. Stump assists with the summer school program and the writing of the Educational Division Handbook. His responsibilities include periodic reports regarding the compiling of marking period results, rosters concerning personnel, orientation of the new teachers, classroom visitations, student counseling, and the improvement of instruction.

RECREATION AND HOUSEPARENT SUPERVISION—Mr. Lawrence E. Best, Mr. Lloyd M. Morgan, and Mr. Alfred T. Gibble.

STUDENT HOME SUPERVISION—Mr. M. Nelson Durand, Mr. Jacob A. Klinedinst, Mr. Joseph A. Brechbill, and Mr. William A. Hoover.

STUDENT HOME DIVISION PROGRESS

With the extensive building program of student homes coming speedily to an end, Milton Hershey School houseparents and students are enjoying many comforts that this program has provided. A better way of living and a sense of values are becoming a reality for each boy. Each student home has not only regular student home sports in which the boys individually participate, and an organized student home council which works in co-operation with the houseparents on new ideas for improving the home life of the students but also a high grade esprit de corps which enables each student home family to live harmoniously together. The responsibility for planning our home life at MHS is divided chiefly among six men: Joseph A. Brechbill, Jacob A. Klinedinst, M. Nelson Durand, William A. Hoover, Alfred T. Gibble and Lawrence E. Best. Working together to ensure a happy and wholesome atmosphere, each of these men contributes to our well-being within the administrative structure. Mr. Brechbill, Director of Senior Home Division, and Mr. Klinedinst, Assistant Director of the Senior Home Division, assume responsibility for guiding the boys in their student home life throughout the senior high school years. In addition to serving in this capacity, Mr. Brechbill serves as Senior Senate Adviser working in conjunction with each student home president and is thus able to present the administration with the student body's attitude on new and old policies. Ably assisting Mr. Brechbill, Mr. Klinedinst helps in planning the wholesome life provided each boy. Together, they encourage each boy to strive for self-dicipline and to benefit from group living. Mr. Durand, Director of the Intermediate Division, is in charge of the planning and supervision of boys grades six through eight. Mr. Durand also serves as Intermediate Senate Adviser, working with each Intermediate student home president. Mr. Hoover, Director of the Junior Division, supervises the educational and student home environment of our smaller boys from kindergarten through fifth grade. Mr. Gibble, Director of Houseparent Personnel, supervises the entire houseparent staff from the time of application through to their employment. Mr. Gibble also advises all houseparents on the many responsibilities which are theirs. A recent addition to the Home Life Staff, Lawrence E. Best serves as Director of Recreation. In the short term Mr. Best has been associated with Milton Hershey School, he has formed a Student home Intramural Basketball League and was responsible for intramural wrestling activities. Mr. Best assumes the responsibility of arranging student schedules for both summer and winter sports.

STUDENT PERSONNEL SERVICES

STUDENT PLACEMENT, PUBLIC AND FAMILY RELATIONS—Seated: Mr. Hali H. Giessler, Director of Family-School Relations; Mrs. Catherine Becker, Administrative Assistant; Mr. Gene Layser, Assistant Director of Student Placement. Standing: Mr. Thural V. Brehm, Administrative Assistant, and Mr. Frederick Miller, Director of Student Placement.

When this year's seniors graduate, they will be looking forward to college or employment in their chosen trade. To help these students along their way is the purpose of the school's Student Placement Service. The liaison service between Milton Hershey School and other schools is handled by Thural V. Brehm. Frederick D. Miller and Gene Layser assist in securing jobs for the students and help each of them to a successful start in today's society. The personnel of the Student Placement Office arrange for College Board tests, help with college applications, and assist the boys in securing employment. Hali Giessler, Director of Family-School Relations, works with agencies and students' parents. He also has charge of Social Security funds for students and all recess plans.

Members of the Student Personnel Staff, under the directorship of Rodney McLaughlin, are involved in many facets of a students life. All phases of the enrollment and termination processes and the steps necessary to help a student adjust while making full use of his abilities and opportunities are functions of this department. Grant T. Custer, Director of Enrollment, has charge of all details from the initial contact with applicant to the completion of his enrollment, Barbara Haas interviews the sponsor of each applicant and prepares the case history for each new boy. Acting as counselors, Charles Newcomer, Richard Johnson, and William Culp help the boy adjust to his new environment.

BUSINESS

BUSINESS CO-ORDINATORS—Mr. John M. Aichele, Business Co-ordinator, and Mr. Clyde F. Ebersole, Comptroller, confer on business reports.

The Business Division has been doing extra duty this year, under the direction of John M. Aichele, Business Co-ordinator, and Clyde F. Ebersole, Comptroller. Renovating of older student homes and construction of new homes was reaching its final phases as the year came to a close. Presently, the Business Division is concerned with the plans for our new Intermediate Division Facility, to be located near the Supply Center and the Memorial School. The Business Division handles all purchases for Milton Hershey School. The Supply Center, supervised by members of the Business Division, Howard Baum and James Albright, takes care of items needed by the student homes for the maintenance of school facilities.

CLERICAL SERVICES

Smooth and efficient operation of MHS requires many secretaries. These competent secretaries handle many varied aspects of school business, from taking care of invoices to typing the daily and weekly bulletins. The members of the staff are ably assisted by students in the business course. Helen Warrington is the private secretary for Dr. John O. Hershey, President; Martha Allwein is the private secretary for Dr. Richard A. Rudisill, Headmaster; Betty Filepas and Elva Nye provide secretarial service for Mr. Fisher and Mr. Stump respectively; Avis Kercher greets visitors and operates the school switchboard; Lois Bretz aids in the Office of Student Placement; Jane Stacks and Mary Hess provide secretarial service for the Department of Student Personnel; Mary Plouse is employed in the Student Home Life Office Division; and Teresa Funghi does secretarial work in the Medical Clinic.

SECRETARIES—First Row: Mrs. Lois Wolfe, Mrs. Elva Nye, Mrs. Jane Stacks, Mrs. Martha Allwein, Mrs. Helen Warrington, Mrs. Mary Hess. Second Row: Mrs. Marion Freed, Miss Lois Bretz, Mrs. Teresa Funghi, Mrs. Frances Wrona, Mrs. Marion Markley, Mrs. Betty Filepas, Mrs. Avis Kercher.

BUSINESS DIVISION—Mr. James Albrite (C), assistant to Business Co-ordinator, Mr. Howard H. Baum (L), Manager of the Supply Center, and Mr. Mario Moratti (R), Assistant to Manager of Supply Center, go over plans.

SAFETY INSPECTION—Mr. Henry Long, Director of Jr.-Sr. High School Maintenance, and Mr. Woodrow W. Bonney, Director of Maintenance, check safety precautions.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Our daily requirments of food, clothing, and transportation are adequately provided by the Supply Center, of which Howard H. Baum is manager and Mario Moratti, assistant manager. Upon the shoulders of Woodrow W. Bonney, Director of Maintenance, and Henry Long, Director of junior-senior high school Maintenance, and those who assist them fall the task of keeping in first-class condition the vast complex of grounds and buildings that make up the Milton Hershey School. A proficient staff of medical and dental personnel provide the best in health services at the school. The medical staff is supervised by Dr. Claude F. Light, with Ruth Essig, Lois Lutz, and Eleanor Wood as nurses. Teresa Funghi, medical secretary, handles all correspondence connected with the department. Medical Clinics are located in the senior high building as well as in the Memorial building. The school infirmary is on the second floor of the Hershey Hospital. Dr. E. C. Schaeffer and Dr. James C. Mahoney provide excellent dental service to the boys of the school. Dr. John Cooper is orthodontist and Alice Balsbaugh is dental hygienist. Marion Freed and Marian Markley serve as dental assistants. Using the finest dental equipment available, the staff provides services from regular examination and cleaning of teeth to proper treatment, including needed dentures.

MEDICAL CONSULTATION—Dr. Claude F. Light, Mrs. Ruth M. Essig, Mrs. Lois Lutz, and Mrs. Eleanor F. Wood, are engaged in consultation.

A SMILE IS TO KEEP—The dental staff of the school is dedicated to this proposition.

M.H.E.A. OFFICERS—Mr. James E. Lineweaver, secretary; Mr. Donald R. Witman, president; Mr. Andrew M. Kavalecs, vice-president; Mr. Ray A. Faidley, treasurer.

M.H.E.A. OFFICERS AND FACULTY

There is a wide range in the length of service of members of the MHS faculty. There have been a number of teachers and administrators who have been here for over thirty years. A number of these members of the Milton Hershey School Family were honored at an assembly in the fall of the 1964-1965 school year. Mrs. Marion Ellenberger and Miss Leah Risser have taught at the Memorial Building for many years. Miss Eleanor G. King is the junior-senior high school librarian and has also worked with the compilers of the biography of Milton S. Hershey. Earl H. Baugher is a member of the high school science department, with his responsibilities in the junior high. Philip K. Shuler is another member of the science department, teaching senior high biology and chemistry, and junior high general science. Mr Shuler started at MHS as an administrator at the Memorial School. Charles A. Bikle is the co-ordinator of the junior-senior high science departments, and teaches senior high physics and chemistry and junior high general science. Like Mr. Shuler, Mr. Bikle started at the Memorial School. C. Floyd Lichtenberger is a teacher of economics, American history and problems of democracy at the senior high level and assists in co-ordinating the "Behind-the-Wheel" driver training program at MHS. Paul I. Kleinfelter is co-ordinator of the Social Studies department and teaches world cultures, American history and problems of democracy. Alfred T. Gibble served for many years as a teacher and football coach at the senior high and is now Director of Houseparent staff. A group of alumni has returned to staff our faculty over the years. Among them are William R. Fisher, Director of Secondary Education, John H. Tellet, Anthony J. Colistra, Raymond A. Orlowski, Harold Buck, Harold Good, Harold A. Hoerner, Gerald Long, and Lloyd Morgan. Still others serve in various capacities throughout the school. We are very proud of our faculty and believe its members to be among the top educators in this country. As the years pass and our original faculty retires, younger people take over the duties, responsibilities and rewards of this important part of life at MHS.

In the following pages the ACROPOLIS would like to present the Senior Class of 1965. It is just a matter of time until these young men will leave Milton Hershey School to make their mark on society. Some will immediately go on to higher education; others will either enter industry or the Armed Services. All of them have spent long years in preparation for entrance into society, and they have learned to realize the deep meaning and true conception of their Alma Mater. Milton Hershey School has striven throughout the years to prepare each member with a practical sense of training and the essentials for good living. We are proud to say that the Class of 1965 will endeavor to use the training which it has received over the years. Fine records of achievement and excellence have characterized the alumni of Milton Hershey School, and the Class of 1965 can proudly boast of similiar accomplishments. The class made a point of striving for the respect of others by maintaining high standards of conduct and leadership, thereby earning the respect of their teachers and administrators. The class was outstanding in its desire to have the best in any project undertaken. Throughout past years, the Honor Rolls have listed the names of many class members who have taken their scholarship seriously and have endeavored to promote school spirit by consistently earning high grades. Governing the class have been leaders who have worked harmoniously in reaching two goals—advancing the goals of Milton Hershey School and the students within. Serving as class adviser has been Matthew Belicic, a faculty member, a houseparent, and a basketball coach. The work of the class adviser is to co-ordinate class business with the class officers, representatives, and committee chairmen.

Together, they plan for the various activities that arise during the school year. The class officers are Joseph Loughlin, president; James Wilt, vice president; Perry Dawson, secretary; John Chronister, treasurer; Jonathan Fisher, historian. The class officers have had the responsibility of conducting the class meetings and promoting unity throughout the class. The senior year has been highlighted by four dances held in various spots in the community of Hershey, visits to away athletic games, participation in various assembly programs, meetings for instructional purposes, and finally, commencement.

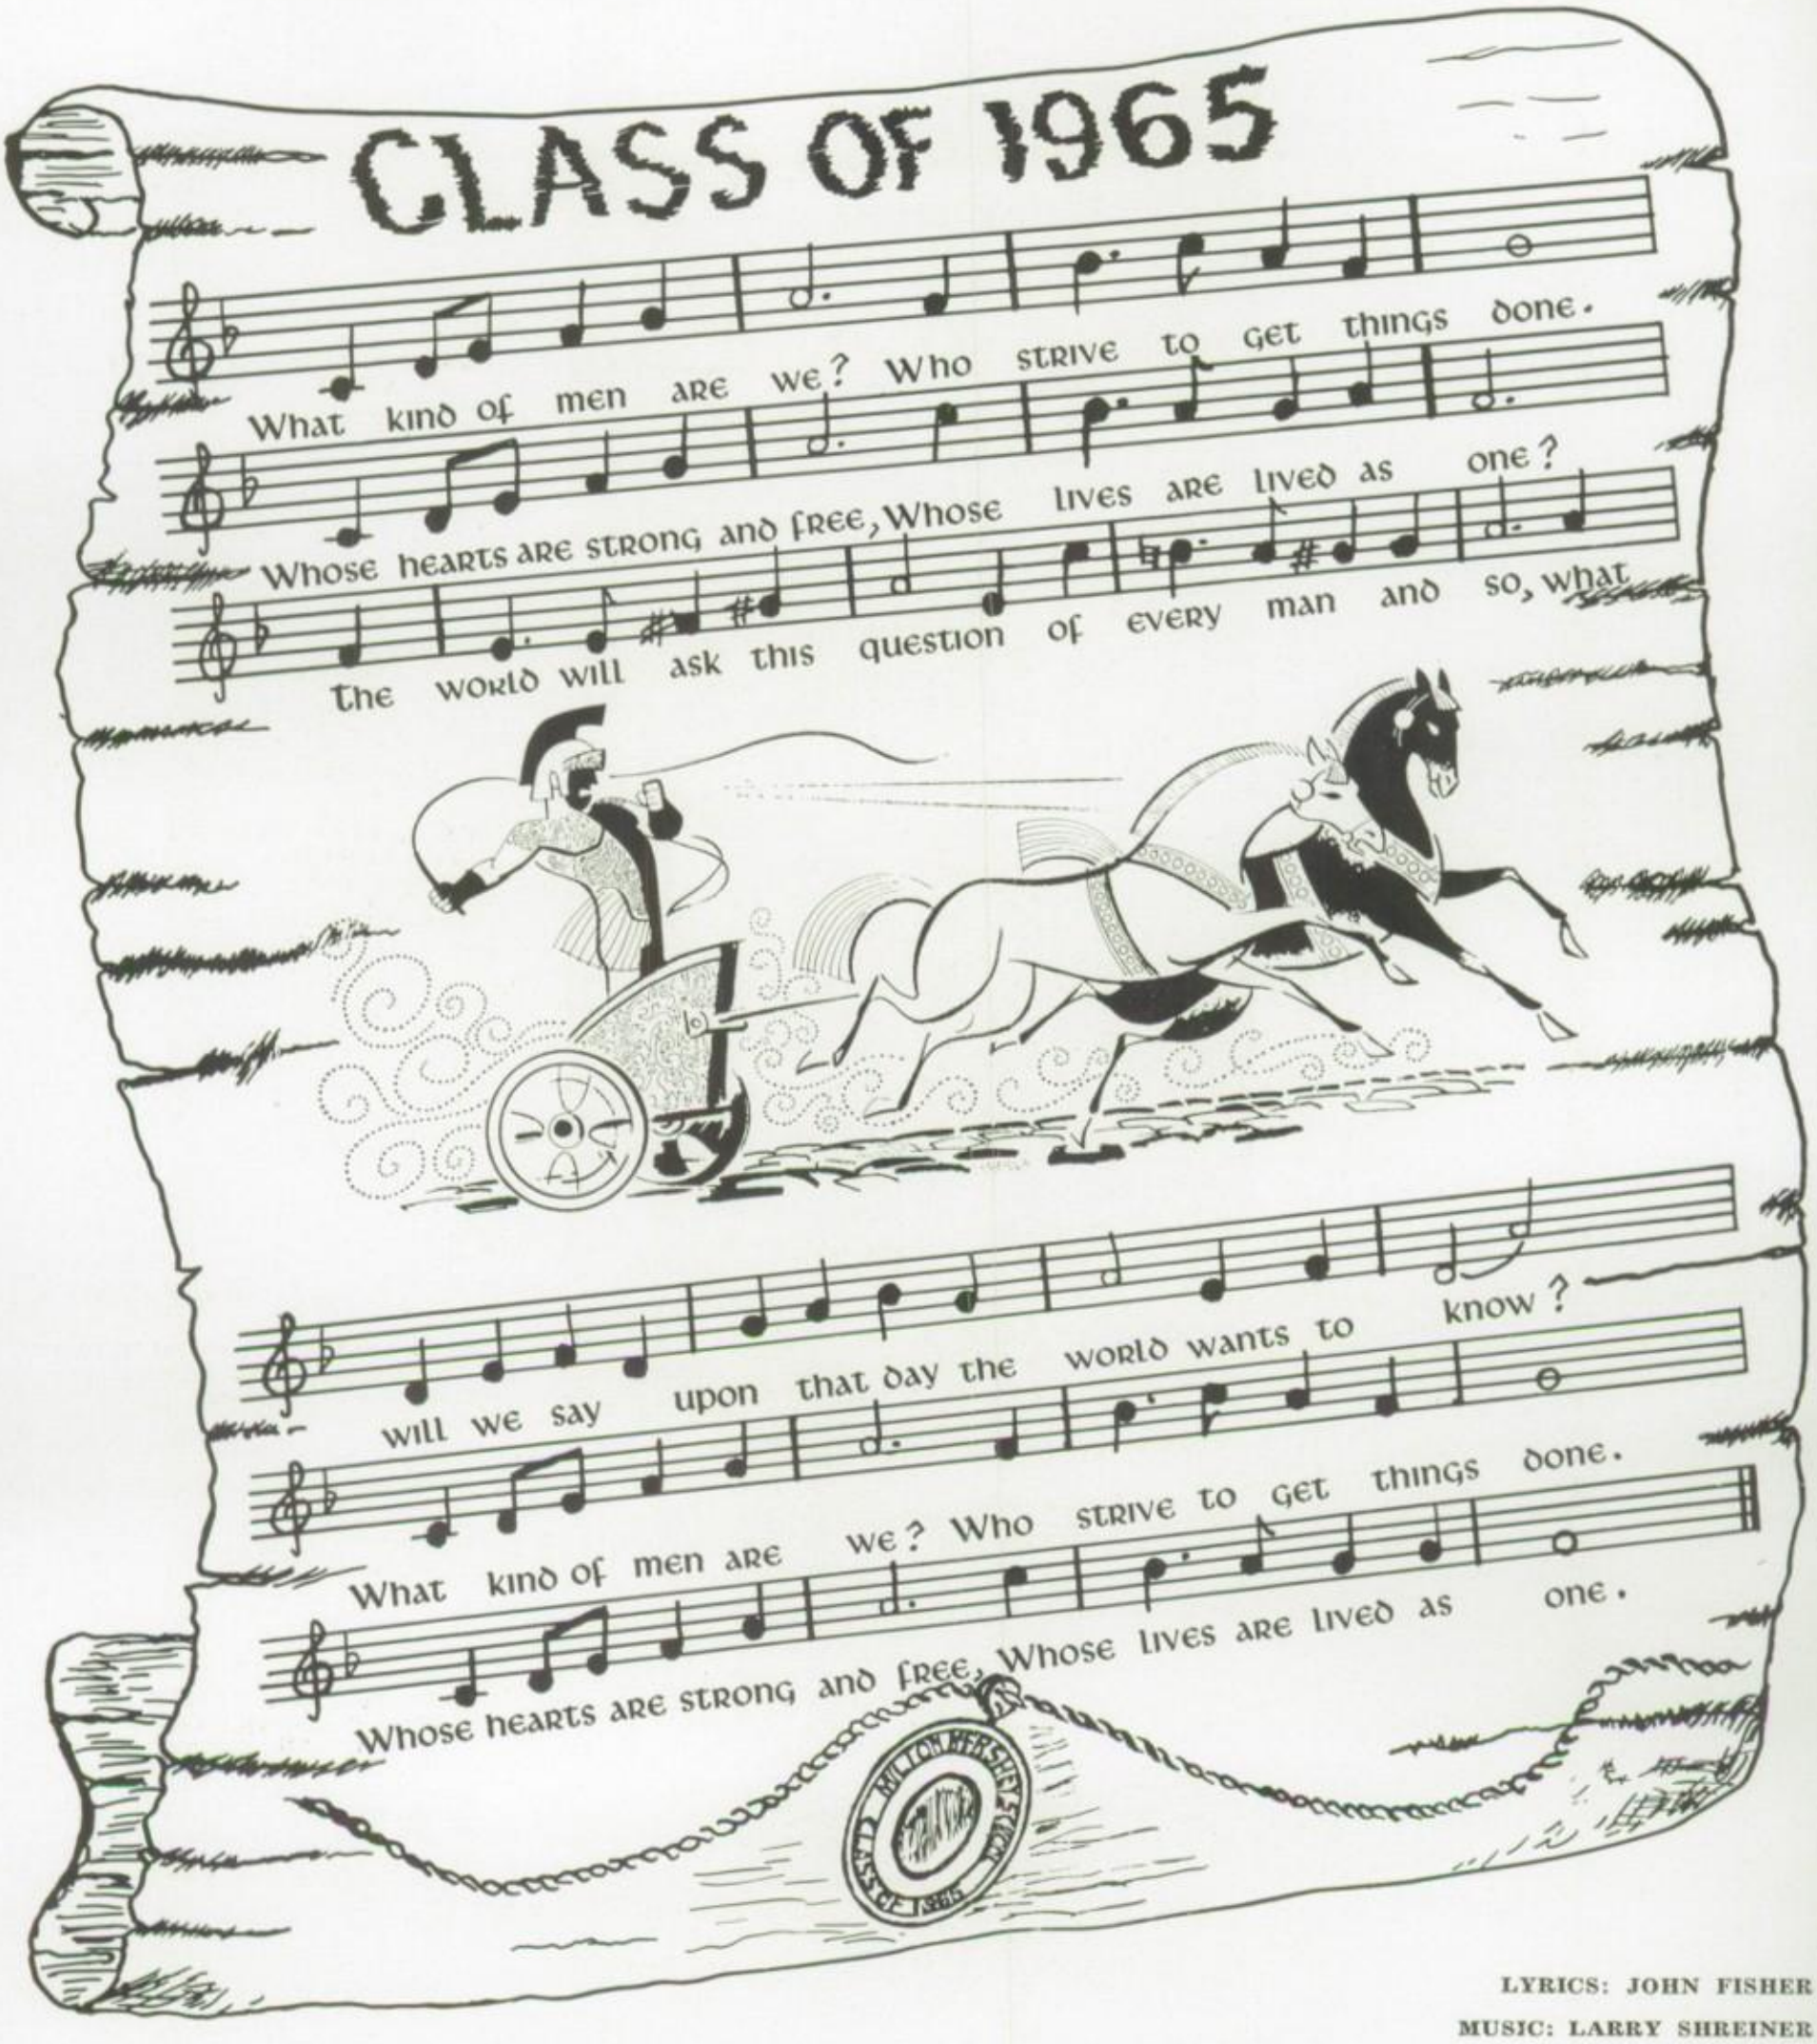
" The better part of every man's education is that which he gives himself."

J. R. Lowell



CLASS OF 1965
What kind of men are we? Who strive to get things done.
Whose hearts are strong and free, Whose lives are lived as one?
The world will ask this question of every man and so, what will we say upon that day the world wants to know?
What kind of men are we? Who strive to get things done.
Whose hearts are strong and free, Whose lives are lived as one.

LYRICS: JOHN FISHER

MUSIC: LARRY SHREINER

A MILTON HERSHEY MAN

I'm a Milton Hershey man sir,
A Spartan till the day I die;
A real live kind of guy who's proud to see
The brown and the gold waving high.

Our school's the finest in the land sir,
I'll sing her praises to the sky;
I'll shout it loud and shout it clear
for all the world to hear:
A proud Milton Hershey man am I.

PROJECT NUMBER 88—Pictured before this year's student home building project are the carpenters, instructed by Mr. Robert Schelhorn.

PRACTICAL TRADE TRAINING

During the formative years at Milton Hershey School, a rigid testing program is followed regarding the vocational choice of each boy. Edward G. Lyman, who works in the area of vocational guidance, administers, in the ninth grade year of each student, a series of tests evaluating each student for occupational preference and suitability. Guided tours are arranged throughout the school year so that the ninth grade boys have an opportunity to see the shops before making the final selection. At the beginning of the sophomore year, each boy is placed in a particular vocational division: either academic work, business education, or the industrial shops. Recently added to the many facilities of the school shop program was the new auto shop wing, which houses the dynamometer and equipment for wheel and light-beam alignment. The Student Home Project for 1964-65 was ahead of schedule most of the year. The students of the carpentry, electricity, plumbing and heating, and sheet metal shops have jointly shared responsibilities in constructing this project. Boys working in the Food Preparation course have the opportunity to gain practical experience in their field by actually working at the Cocoa Inn and the Hershey Bakery. These and other opportunities encourage the boy to do his best. Presently, the shops include agriculture, auto mechanics, baking, candy making, carpentry, electricity, electronics, food preparation, machine shop practice, plumbing and heating, printing, and sheet metal and welding. The training program covers a three-year period with half of the time spent in class instruction and the other half in shop training. While the training is generally specialized, it is kept broad in scope.

DYNAMOMETER ADDED—Mr. Harry Buck instructs his mechanics in interpreting the electronic impulses on the dynamometer.

OH! SO GOOD!—In a modern Laboratory students are instructed by Mr. David Hassler.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The Business Education Department at Milton Hershey School is one of the fastest moving departments in the entire school. Students enter this department in their tenth grade year upon completing the required guidance tests in ninth grade. Sophomores gain knowledge of world cultures, biology, English, typing, and business mathematics. Many of these boys find their way into a number of the secretarial positions for the school administrators at the end of their first year. Sophomores also have the opportunity of serving as clerks for the Milton Hershey School Bank. They carefully count each deposit as it comes into the bank each week. Both juniors and seniors take an active part in keeping the bank in good order. Juniors further their knowledge by taking Bookkeeping I, Shorthand I, English, American History, Typing II. Seniors end their stay at Milton Hershey by having practical training in either Bookkeeping II of Shorthand II, sales, business law, business management, office machines, problems of democracy, and psychology.

TEST TIME—Mr. Russell Klinger administers a test to students of the 12-2 accounting class.

PREPARING FOR COLLEGE

CONGRATULATIONS—Three of the fourteen thousand finalists in The National Merit Scholarship Test were John Daschke, Glen Hay, and Michael Quick.

Because of the increasing emphasis of our society upon higher education, Milton Hershey School realizes the need for preparing its students for college. Each teacher endeavors to inspire his students to achieve academic excellence. The College Preparatory boys study such applied courses as German, geometry, Algebra II, trigonometry, physics, biology, chemistry, Problems of Democracy, and English. This training is superior in quality and is vital preparation for the Liberal Arts Curriculum. The Business Education Department prepares its students basically for admission into business colleges throughout the country. It provides boys with knowledge and experience in many related business subjects. The two College Preparatory Technical sections give students not only an understanding of the Liberal Arts subjects, but knowledge of the particular trade of their choice. In recent years the percentage of boys going on to higher education has been high. Forty-two per cent of the graduating Class of 1964 went on to higher learning, while fifty-eight per cent entered either industry or the armed services.

STUDENT SENATES

The Student Senate shares with the administration in the leadership of the student body by exercising powers delegated to it by the Administrative Staff. The Senior Senate undertakes projects serving the school and the boys. Some projects that have come out of this active organization are a photography post, set up to teach boys the art of photography, and a Blazers project which was on last years agenda and on which a decision has just been reached. A Student Handbook, to be published this year, is an informal publication of the school rules. The Student Senate officers were Kenneth Sharp, president; James Wilt, vice-president; John Swegart, secretary; Glen Andrews, treasurer; Larry Shreiner, chaplain; with Joseph A. Brechbill as Senate Adviser.

The Intermediate Senate is an important part of our intermediate division school life. The Senate presents ideas to the administration while its members prepare themselves for future leadership. The Intermediate Senate of the 1964-65 school year presented the following projects and ideas: A roster was made up of numbers and positions of a ninth grade football team and ice hockey team. The Senate presented a show at the Elizabethtown Crippled Children's Hospital, and also an assembly program on February 19. An intermediate all-star basketball team has been contemplated. The officers of the Intermediate Division Student Senate this year were J. Mardula, president; A. Delany, vice-president; M. Struzzeri, secretary; R. Benovitz, treasurer; E. Bacon, chaplain. Mr. M. Nelson Durand served as their adviser.

KEEPING OUR STANDARDS HIGH

"I will try to keep my standards high, and help others to do likewise." This is an excerpt from the school pledge. Milton Hershey School is proud of two of its organizations for fulfilling this purpose: The Spartan Chapter of the National Honor Society, advised by Mr. W. Lyndon Hess; and Troop 75 of the Boy Scouts of America, of which Mr. Paul S. Reitz is scoutmaster. Under Mr. Hess's direction, the Honor Society has plans for establishing a student book store and has maintained a Guide Service. The scouts, under Mr. Reitz, Scoutmaster, and with the help of assisting faculty members, have performed a number of service projects, including aid to the Goodwill Industries program.

Under the able leadership of faculty adviser, Mr. Gerald Long; Student Drill Sergeant, Mike Raifsnider; and Assistant Drill Sergeant, Keith Lasch, the Varsity Drill Team has paraded their way once more to the acclaim and respect of many audiences throughout this area. With snappy disciplined routines and sharp appearance, they have accented the pre-game and half-time football performances throughout the season. Modeled upon routines of the armed services, the Varsity Drill team performs a series of kaleidoscopic drills. Along with our Varsity Band, they have participated in the Steelton Parade, Ephrata Parade, traditional Hershey Halloween Parade, and highlighted the year by accompanying the band to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

COLOR GUARD

COLOR GUARD—First Row: J. Gast, W. Thieroff, V. Gravina, M. Brunner, F. Dieter, R. Davidson, J. Layton.

The Milton Hershey School Color Guard, advised by Mr. Gerald Long, gave commendable service to Milton Hershey School again this year. Their precision routines and sharp performance brought admiration from every audience as the Color Guard performed through the season. Along with her sister organization, the Varsity Band and Drill Team, the Color Guard performed at football games and parades, and went to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City. Senior members of the Color Guard, John Gast and Frank Dieter, contributed greatly to the success of the organization in its activities representing Milton Hershey School. The Color Guard is proudly put forth as a representitive group of Spartan men.

M.H.S. BAND ACTIVITIES DURING 64-65

As the football season got under way, the Varsity Band began providing a colorful array of pre-game and half-time entertainment to add to the spirit of the M. H. S. football games. The band's highlight came early in the season, when they participated in the Miss America pageant held in Atlantic City. Other activities included performances in parades. The first one took place late in the summer, when the band took part in Steelton's Centennial Parade. Later in the season they participated in the Ephrata Parade and the traditional Hershey Halloween Parade. As an additional activity this year, the band performed at Penn State in a Band Day celebration. Under their director, Ray B. Miller, the band has performed for other high schools on an exchange basis. In addition, the band gave a concert for the student body as an assembly program. Student leaders for the organization are: Larry Shreiner, president; James Brezovec, drum major; Robert Rosenbaum, treasurer; Roger Fasnacht, secretary; Richard Brezovec, manager; and Larry Varon, librarian. Providing marching and group performance experience for future varsity band members is the junior high band, also directed by Mr. Miller.

M.H.S. GLEE CLUB

Every year Virgil L. Alexander produces a group of accomplished songsters known as the Milton Hershey School Glee Club. Their enthusiam for singing and the eager acclaim of audiences produce a demanding concert schedule which includes churches, national conventions, community concerts, schools and college programs, and a few short tours. The Glee Club's frequent appearances in Sunday morning worship services always add to the inspirational atmosphere of the service.

The real highlights of the Glee Club's activities this year, however, were their spring tour to the Pittsburgh area and to parts of Ohio and West Virginia, and accompanying the wrestling team to Bedford, where the Glee Club sang in the afternoon of the meet. The music consists of many different religious songs, well-known college songs, and some current "pop" tunes — a total of 40, all sung from memory. The student officers are: Jonathan Fisher, president; John Swegart, manager; Sidney Mann, librarian; Donald Mullen, secretary; and Robert Ridgway, historian. Mr. Purnell Payne assists as accompanist. It is with great appreciation that we wish Mr. "A", as he is better known, the best luck with future Glee Clubs.

THE POPULAR SPARTAN ORCHESTRA

This year's 1964-65 Spartan Orchestra, under the direction of W. Purnell Payne, consists of two seniors eight juniors, and five sophomores. This select group of young musicians plays for many of the social affairs in Hershey, and has spread the Milton Hershey School talent this year by performing at the Annville High School, the Lower Dauphin Faculty Christmas Party, the Harrisburgh Hospital Nurses Dance, and two senior dances. The highlight of this year's orchestra concert season was their trip to Lititz, Pennsylvania where they participated in the Senior Prom festivities at Linden Hall, a private school for girls. The Orchestra also competed in the "Central Pennsylvania Stage Band Competition," and out of a possible total of 300 points, our group scored 256. Members of the saxcphone section are Samuel Douthett, Baritone Sax; Roger Fasnacht, First Alto Sax; David Plaine, Third Alto Sax; Robert Rosenbaum, Second Tenor Sax; and Larry Varon, Fourth Tenor Sax. Included are Alan Licause, First Trumpet; Frank Leibowitz, Second Trum pet; George King, Third Trumpet; and Kenneth Gandy, Fourth Trumpet. The rest of the brass section is Richard Pierson, First Trombone; Robert Shoman, Second Trombone; and Kenneth Small, Third Trombone. The heart of the orchestra, the percussion section, is Bruce Anello on the drums; Raymond Bucks, String Bass; and Michael Quick, Piano.

CHOIR DIRECTORS —Miss Lynette E. Waller and Mr. Harold E. Reichard examine the Westminister Chimes used by the Handbell Choir.

An opportunity to develop their singing skills and to prepare for participation in the Milton Hershey School Glee Club is afforded the younger boys who are members of the Junior High Choirs and the Memorial School Choir. The former group is under the dynamic leadership of Harold E. Reichard, who joined our staff at the end of the preceding school term; the latter group is directed by Miss Lynette Waller. The boys of the Memorial Choir range from third to fifth grade. In addition to preparing boys for future choir work, it is the purpose of these organizations to instill in the boys an appreciation of good music and to teach them the fundamentals of choral singing. On occasions both of these choirs take part in Sunday Worship Services, adding inspiration to the program.

Many changes are evident this year at Milton Hershey School. Along with the many renovating and building programs and new educational developments, a new faculty member has been added to the Music Department. Coming from Butler, Pennsylvania, Mr. Harold E. Reichard joined the staff as a vocal music instructor. His responsibilities include directing the Junior High Choir and the MHS Boys Choir while teaching vocal music to grades six through nine. In addition to his busy schedule, Mr. Reichard has developed what has come to be known as the Handbell Choir. As its name indicates, this unique group uses a complete set of special bells specifically adapted for concert and church programs. Arranged in three separate divisions, the choir is becoming quite popular and has participated in the Sunday morning worship services on occasion.

SPARTAN ADVISER AND STAFF

SPARTAN STAFF ADVISERS—First Row: Mr. Merl L. Stuckey, Miss Mary A. Strauss, Mr. Richard O. Hugendubler, Mr. Raymond A. Orlowski.

The SPARTAN has undergone a number of changes for the 1964-65 season. Because of the time lapse between the date of information contained in the SPARTAN and the date which appears on the cover, a new method of preparing each issue is being used. Rather than dating them monthly, the six issues have been named Fall, Christmas, Winter, Alumni, Spring, and Graduation. Included in the section "Briefly Stated" are news articles. As the name implies, these are short and concise. Headlines consisting of several words are used with longer news stories. Each item is indicated by a printer's dot. The main article each month is a feature dealing with a timeless aspect of our school. This is found in the beginning of each publication. These are the major changes, and others are likely to evolve when necessary. The school magazine combines variety with an informal style, which is appealing to the reader.

As a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association which annually gives awards to the best school papers in the country, we have received many high honors in years past. Our faculty Advisory Board is headed by Mary Strauss and George F. Sandel with Richard Hugendubler, Layout; Merl L. Stuckey, Printing; Raymond A. Orlowsky, Circulation; and Mary R. Plouse, Subscription. The student in charge of the paper is Editor-in-Chief Roy Samras. He is assisted by Associate Editors Ronald Smith, News; James Konevitch and Fred Zauderer, Sports; Michael Quick, Literary; John Daschke, Features; Van Dickey, Exchange; Vincent Dickey, Alumni. The staff Reporters are Larry Hudson, John Porter, Clark Smith, Larry Varon, Edward Dore, John Duffy, Vincent Gravina, Leon Demsky, Dale Wolford. Other members of the Staff are Ira Brown, Typist; Robert Ridgway and Andrew Morgan, Printing Foremen, assisted by Joseph Samuelson, Milan Campbell, and David Fleming. Neil Farley, Dennis Hake, Michael Hymes, and Richard Nelson, serve in Circulation.

ACROPOLIS ADVISER AND STAFF

The 1965 ACROPOLIS returned to formal style and traditional movement after the welcome change to an informal style in the 1964 yearbook.

Charles A. Astfalk, Layout Adviser, assisted by students of his drafting classes, has produced a dummy which will give an accurate record of the school year and provide a prized memory book for both students and faculty.

The theme, The School Pledge, printed in full on page 5 and on the divider pages, unifies the book, of which pages 1 through 48 are printed by letterpress and pages 48 through 72 by offset, now in its second year of production. It is a credit to Milton Hershey School that the yearbook is composed, edited, and bound by the students.

Early in the fall the staff was organized and copy was sent to the print shop in October. Senior pictures and group pictures assigned to the professional photographer were taken by mid-October. General copy, with the exception of spring sports, was ready for the print shop by the end of January.

CO-ORDINATOR—Mr. Orville H. Strait supervises the composition of the 1965 ACROPOLIS.

Richard Trees, a member of the 1964 staff, was named Managing Editor. John Daschke became Literary Editor and Perry Dawson, Business Editor. Richard Brezovec, Frederick Hayward, Timothy Day were named Associate Editors, and Charles Welsh Sports Editor. Robert Ridgway was chosen Production Editor for letterpress printing and Andrew Morgan for offset printing.

The task of guiding the ACROPOLIS staff, as in two years past, has been placed in the hands of Orville H. Strait, who as Co-ordinator has spent many long and tedious hours working with other members of the ACROPOLIS staff to make our yearbook outstanding. Assisting Mr. Strait were Merl L. Stuckey, Letterpress Printing Adviser; Richard O. Hugendubler, Offset Printing Adviser; Grant T. Custer, Photography Adviser, assisted by Richard D. Thomas. Raymond A. Orlowski was Typing Adviser. Bryan P. Seese and Stephen C. Tushup served as proofreaders.

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

The Spartans combined their talents with teamwork to produce a winning combination. The offense proved very capable, scoring 137 points. Of this total, Mike O'Neill scored 6 touchdowns, Mort Christian 5, Walt Kuronyi 4, Keith Horning 3; Bob Dunlop, Dick Seyler, and John McMillen each scored one. Blocking was provided by Ken Weinberg, Steve Cornibert, Joe Loughlin, Larry Garner, Jim Konevitch and tight end Jim Hanawalt. The big, strong defense allowed their opponents only 105 points. Their best performance was in the hard-hitting Palmyra game. The Spartans won when Bob Dunlop, a defensive end, intercepted a pass and raced 45 yards for the score. The defense was strengthened by Jack Kotchey, Larry Garner, Tim Nuttal, Joe Loughlin, Ken Waite, Walt Kuronyi, Mort Christian, Bob Dunlop, Dick Seyler, Bill Spiese, John McMillen, and Terry Glass. Congratulations to the 1964 squad, head coach Bob Klingler, assistants Fred Poorman and Tony Colistra and Captain Bob Dunlop for a job well done.

The J.V. football squad, coached by John Hoerner, capped its 1964 season with a 3-5-0 record. The JV's were many times the victims of bad breaks and lost 3 games by one touchdown. The Spartans presented a tough, scrappy defense and a smooth running offense. Their morale was good and they displayed strength, desire, and ability. Bill Vessa, Monty Rishell, Gary Hartman, and Dave VanNort made up the middle line, while Marv Weinberg and Keith Lasch held the end spots. Joe Falcone quarterbacked the squad and Rick Beam, Dan Bailey, and Mike Wright did the running. Tom McClay was the flanker. The defense consisted of Chuck Welsh, Richard Pluck, Dave Harding, Bill Vessa, Gary Hartman. Glenn Alexander, Marv Weinberg, Dennis Reichelderfer, Roger Fasnacht, Keith Lasch, Dan Bailey. The co-captains were Gary Hartman, Bill Vessa, and Marv Weinberg.

NINTH GRADE FOOTBALL-1964 SEASON

STRATEGY—R. Bonchak, D. Nichols, and T. Kime receive instructions from Coach Lester S. Holstein before game.

This year's Freshman Football squad, coached by Lester S. Holstein, established a season log of 2 wins, 4 loses, and 1 tie. Boasting both good speed and size, they competed favorably in most of the contests. The Spartan understudies showed strength, desire, and good morale through the entire season. They co-operated well with their coach and portray a bright future for football here at M.H.S. Quarterback John Egnew led the team well with his fine arm. Halfbacks Don Bunfield and Jeff Sharver ran well. Gary McCalmont, Dave Nicholas, Kevin Gebhart, Gary Westfall, and Mike McCarthy added power to the line. Ron Blatt and Tom Davidson tied down the chores at the ends. Tom Atkinson blocked well from the Flanker spot. Defensive standouts on the club were Freddie Schwartz, Milt Block, Bob Bonchak, and Rick Hughes.

VARSITY BASKETBALL 1964-1965

VARSITY BASKETBALL—First Row: R. Dunlop, G. Andrews, M. O'Neill, W. Kuronyi, T. Glass, K. Sharp. Second Row: R. Chronister, J. Hanawalt, J. McMillen, John Cook (Coach), J. Brezovec, J. Fassinger, R. Bullman.

This year's basketball squad undertook the 1964-65 season with confidence and high hopes for another successful year in the Capital Area Conference. The Spartans, under the capable guidance of Coach John Cook, had a disappointing start, losing five of six preleague games with some of the area's toughest teams. The first cycle of conference play told a different story, however, as the hoopsters won six of seven games. The 1964-65 team may have been one of the best ever assembled on the Hill except for the fact that they were hardly ever playing at full strength. Injuries plagued the squad, but they were still able to come up with a winning combination. The Spartans went through the first five games without a defeat, despite absences of key players.

Juniors on the starting team were Terry Glass and John McMillen. Both will figure prominently on next year's squad. Glass and McMillen were usually consistent scorers and good rebounders. Other juniors were John Baldwin, Bill Tymchak, and Mike Weller, who came up from the JV's for the last three games. The three senior starters were Jim Fassinger, Mike O'Neill, and Walt Kuronyi. Occasionally Glenn Andrews or Bob Chronister played the starting position, which shows the depth the squad had. Bob Dunlop, Jim Brezovec, Jim Hanawalt, Ken Sharp, and Ray Bullman made up the rest of the bench. The seniors on the squad should be congratulated for the leadership and ability they displayed throughout the season.

This year's biggest heartbreakers for the basketballers were two overtime defeats at the hands of Hershey High and Susquehanna Township. The Hershey game, played on home hardwoods, went into two overtimes and at the outset the Spartans lost 53-51 on two long set shots. Perhaps the most exciting game of the year was played at Susquehanna Township. The Spartans were two points behind with ten seconds left in the last quarter when Walt Kuronyi sank a corner shot to put the game into a three minute overtime. The two teams traded a few field goals, but the Indians made one more foul shot and prevailed by a 44-43 count. Despite these disappointments, the Spartans had a good season.

Co-captains on the 1964-65 team were Glenn Andrews and John McMillen. Under the leadership of these two players the team displayed hustle, desire, and a strong will to win. This will to win is expressed by the fact that in nearly all their games, the Varsity was behind either at the end of the first quarter or the first half. Thus the squad depended on a strong second half to win many games. This year's Varsity Basketball Team added desire, hustle, and co-operation to their fine talent to once again bring honor to our school in basketball.

Congratulations to the 1964-65 squad, Co-captains, John McMillen and Glenn Andrews and to Head Coach John Cook for another good performance on the court.

JR. VARSITY BASKETBALL 1964-1965

The 1964-65 JV basketball squad compiled a commendable league mark of twelve wins and only two losses. The overall record for the club was sixteen wins and four losses. In the tough pre-league contest with John Harris the JV's prevailed by one point. The closest game of the conference was with a tough Middletown team; the little Spartans won in an overtime period by one point. Coach Bob Klingler's main objective as JV mentor is to teach and develop fundamentals so that the boys will be ready for competition on a varsity level.

This year's JV team, with Keith Lasch as captain, which came close to matching last year's undefeated team, was successful for the most part because of speed, good defense, desire, and drive.

The squad was centered around starters Keith Lasch, Mike Weller, Phil Silvestri, Dick Brezovec, and Harold Sandoe. Good depth is required also. As Coach Klingler states, "A team is as good as its bench makes it." The depth was made possible by George Williams, John Duffy, Andrew Parrish, Mike Johnston, Barry Kabinoff, Ron Dunwiddie, Tom McClay, Vince Gravina, Bob Bazzano, and Chuck Welsh, who came late in the season.

The squad's high scorer was Keith Lasch, with a total of 210 points. The high score in a game was made by Phil Silvestri with 24 markers in the John Harris game. Both Dick Brezovec and Keith Lasch came close with 21 and 20 points, respectively, in single games. Mike Weller and Dick Brezovec were important on the boards. Defensive specialists were Harold Sandoe and Keith Lasch.

NINTH GRADE BASKETBALL 1964-65 SEASON

CAPABLE COACHES—Ninth Grade Basketball Coach, Matthew Belicic; Junior Varsity Coach, Robert Klingler; and John Cook, Varsity Coach, pose for The ACROPOLIS photographer.

The Freshman basketball team, coached by Matthew Belicic, didn't have a winning record; however, they did prove they could work well together and showed that they really were a good team despite the record of six wins and nine losses.

Many boys on the squad will figure prominately in the future of basketball here at MHS.

The "tiny Spartans" depended largely on the outside shooting of Forest Knisley, Donald Bunfield, and Carl Thompson, on the rebounding of Gary McCalmont, and on the defensive ability of Richard Boyd. The bench consisted of Bob Bonchack, Ed Adams, Frank Colsher, Tom Davidson, John Egnew, Joel Batrus and Larry Boyle.

The eighth grade squad did well this year and had many players who undoubtedly will develop into excellent ball players. Such boys as Jim Hamilton, Tom Connolly, Ed Bucks, John Mardula, Mike Coughlin and Fred Querry. The eighth graders compiled a commendable record of ten wins and three losses.

The varsity wrestling squad once again compiled a successful seasonal record. This year they won eight meets and lost six. The wrestlers, under the supervision of head coach Donald Witman, displayed much teamwork and ability despite key personnel losses and problems.

Jack Kotchey, a senior, was voted by his teammates as most outstanding wrestler in duel meet competition for 1964-65. Jack, who won more meets than any other member of the squad, wrestled in the 180 pound class.

Each year at the end of the season the wrestlers are invited to attend a prep school tournament at Lehigh University.

This year the Spartan matmen finished in a tie with Baylor School from Tennessee. Mort Christian was the only wrestler who won a championship. In his final bout, he scored five points in the last thirty seconds of the last period to win 9 to 8. He scored two points for a takedown and three for a near-fall.

There were two highlights in the 1964-65 wrestling season. One, of course, was the trip to the Lehigh Tournament. The other highlight was a meet at Bedford, in western Pennsylvania, where the grapplers stayed overnight. Even though they lost the meet, the boys enjoyed the trip and the stay at Bedford.

Personnel problems plagued the squad early in the year, but they were able to come up with a winning combination. Those boys who wrestled on the varsity squad were Clark Reed, Wally Confer, Mike Wright, Earl Field, Marv Weinburg, Mort Christian, Ed Wright, Dick Keener, Jack Kotchey, Art Welch, Tom Renolds, and Rick Beam, who wrestled when he was needed.

The 1964-65 squad worked hard in practice and had to overcome many problems to have a winning season and finish in third place in the league.

Congratulations, wrestling squad, for your fine effort.

1964-65 JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING

Under the capable coaching of Ray Faidley, the 1965 JV wrestling squad compiled a winning record of seven wins, six losses, and one tie.

The JV wrestlers, who worked hard all year, were a hustling, high-spirited group. They will surely help make next year's varsity a success by the addition of good wrestlers. This is the main purpose of JV wrestling, and these boys will probably do their job well.

Some prominent members who wrestled a great deal this year were Rick Beam, William Kohl, Jeff Shawver, Milt Block, Don Gebhart, Richard Pluck, Joe Feese, William Stoler, and Roger Pryor.

The teams in the schedule this year were John Harris, Lower Dauphin, Susquehanna, Cumberland Valley, Mechanicsburg, Middletown, Lancaster Catholic, Bedford, Palmyra, State College, Manheim Central, Cedar Cliff, Central Dauphin and Hershey. Teams such as these provided tough competition for the JV grapplers, who usually pulled through with more wins than defeats.

The highlight of the JV season was their trip to Bedford, in western Pennsylvania, for a meet and an overnight stay.

We are confident that the JV wrestlers will once again supply our varsity with the talent needed to complete another season successfully next year.

The complete story in athletic contests does not always appear in scorebooks. This year the Spartan Swimmers took definite steps toward future success by the addition of many junior high boys who were given experience which is so vital to any team. Previously the swimming team was composed mainly of senior high boys.

The plucky Spartans were boundless in their praises for their new coach, Richard Thieler, who was a former star at West Chester State Teachers College. They especially lauded his talents, his optimism, his determination, and his modesty.

The swimmers definitely came out on the short end of the winning column. Even so, many boys on the squad gave their best and contributed all they had to Coach Thieler throughout the season.

Some of those swimmers were Rocky Spiese, Bob Ridgway, Mark Kligman, Mike Raifsnider, Dennis Fogle, Rick Allison, and two divers, Bob Goodworth and Doug Zembower. The rest of the squad deserve much credit for their fine efforts. Some of the junior high standouts were Mark Reiter, Ronnie Alderson, Scott McAdams, and Joe Perzel.

TRACK AND BASEBALL 1965

VETERAN TRACKMEN—William Spiese, John McMillen, and Terry Glass assume important rolls on this year's track team.

The 1965 Track Squad, the fourth since its revival here, look forward with high hopes to another successful season. Under new coaches Lester S. Holstein and John Hoerner, the track men were prepared for just such a season. Terry Glass, John McMillen, Ken Waite, Bill Spiese, Nick Lewis, Dallas Estright, Steve Koltenback, and Joe Loughlin were veterans from last year's squad.

The 1965 baseball squad, under coaches Fred Poorman and Allen Hoover, prepared this year for another season in the highly competitive Central Penn League. The team was built around lettermen Mike O'Neill, Glenn Andrews, Larry Garner, Bob Gibbs, and Keith Lasch. Gary Hartman, Mike Weller, Robert Yackanicz, Tim Day, and Lee Kidd also figured prominently in the 1965 squad. Congratulations to the 1965 Baseball team for their fine effort and co-operation.

BASEBALL TRIO—Robert Gibbs, Michael O'Neill, and Glenn Andrews were spark plugs of the 1965 baseball squad.

BASEBALL COACHES—Fred A. Poorman and Allen M. Hoover await arrival of players for a work out in the gym.

CLASS LEADERS FOR 1966

Since the Class of 1966 has been organized, it has left a favorable impression through outstanding records in scholarship, service, leadership and conduct. The class was formally organized in the middle of February, 1965. After the class had been given a briefing on parliamentary procedure by Mr. William R. Fisher, Director of Secondary Education, they elected as Adviser Mr. Harold E. Hoerner, Plumbing and Heating Instructor at MHS and an alumnus of the school. The next project the class undertook was the election of class officers. The officers of the Class of 1966 are Roger Fasnacht, President; Marvin Weinberg, Vice-president; Keith Lasch, Secretary; Cary Lambert, Treasurer; and Larry Varon, Historian. These officers were selected for their extraordinary qualities in leadership, scholarship, and honor.

The class has wide participation in such activities as football, wrestling, basketball, baseball, track, the National Honor Society, and other organizations. The Class of 1966 also shows high ratings on the Honor Roll and Distinguished Honor Roll rosters. Besides scholastic achievement, the class has proven itself talented in the music department. The class made a point of striving for the respect of others by achieving high standards of leadership and conduct and doing so has earned the respect of the administration as well as the faculty and the houseparents.

Two events have highlighted this past year, the first being an assembly program, which was well received by the student body. The class put many hours of hard work and practice behind this program. The Junior Prom, first dance of the year was held in the Starlight Ballroom. There were many days of planning behind the prom; and when the big day came, it was a big success with not only the members of the class, but also the administration. The prom ended the year on a perfect note. This class, like the ones before it, has shown an interest in excellence. When ideas are brought before the class, they are looked at from all angles, both positive and negative, to see how sound they are. Taking all into consideration, the class has been blessed with competent guidance and a firm level-headed manner in reaching conclusions. The experiences of this year have helped the Class of 1966 know where they are going and what to do when they get there. This has been a good and productive year.

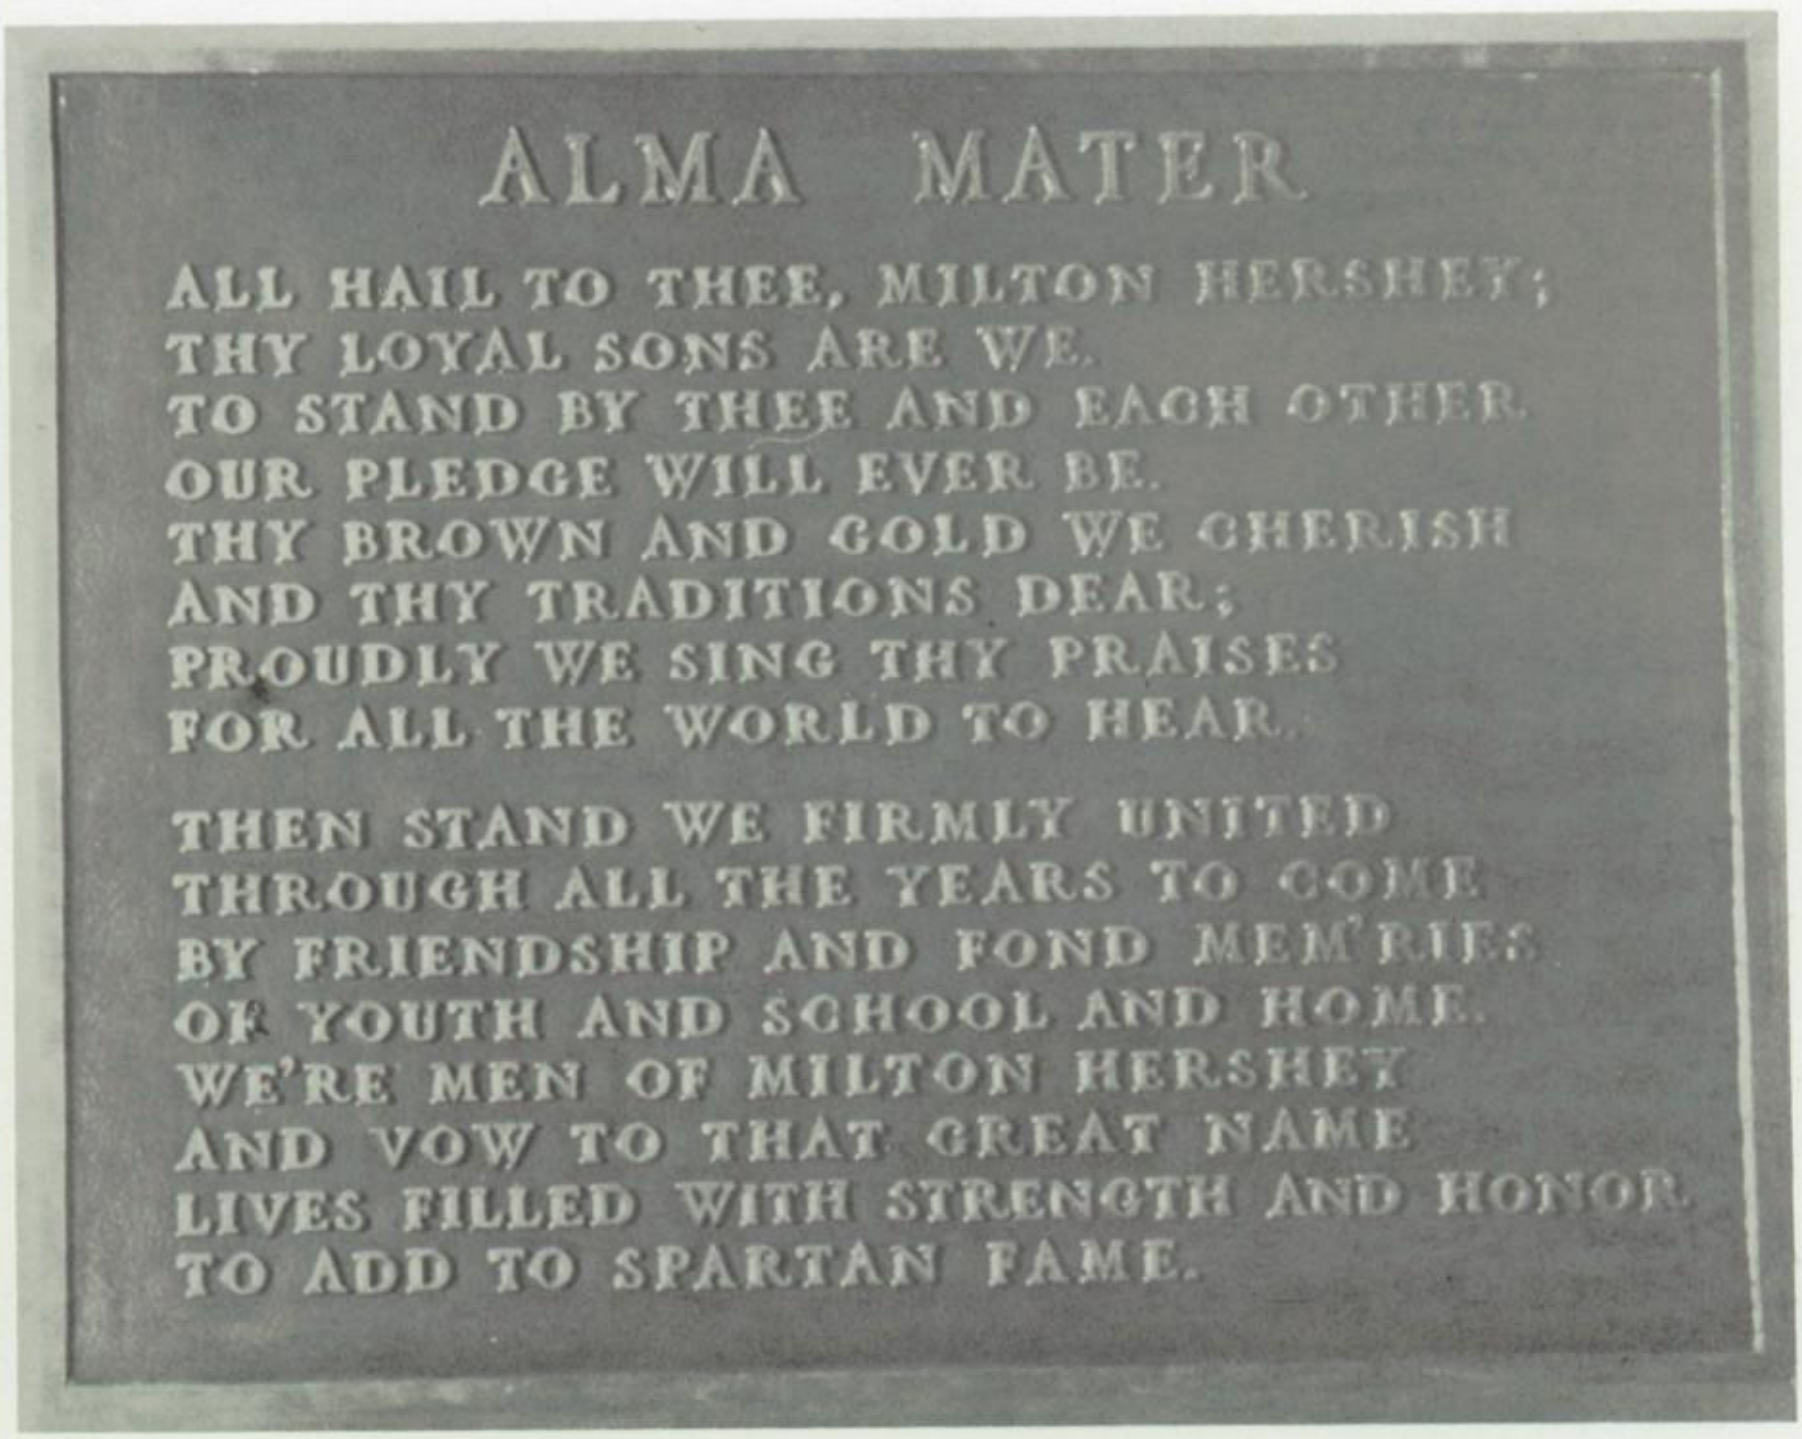
FAREWELL

You have come to the end of our yearbook, even as we have come to the end of our stay at Milton Hershey School, which has been both school and home to us for so many years. These years now seem to have passed as quickly as the time taken to scan these pages. For us this is not the end but the beginning. We now go out from Milton Hershey prepared to make a place for ourselves in this world.

We hope you have enjoyed our publication. We chose as our theme the School Pledge because of the impact it has made on our lives and on the lives of thousands of homeboys who have graduated in years past. We shall cherish this yearbook as the key to memories of happy days spent here at our Alma Mater. We leave our school with the words of our Alma Mater ringing in our ears. Throughout our lives we shall continue to sing her praises.



ALMA MATER
ALL HAIL TO THEE, MILTON HERSHEY; THY LOYAL SONS ARE WE.
TO STAND BY THEE AND EACH OTHER
OUR PLEDGE WILL EVER BE.
THY BROWN AND GOLD WE CHERISH
AND THY TRADITIONS DEAR;
PROUDLY WE SING THY PRAISES
FOR ALL THE WORLD TO HEAR.
THEN STAND WE FIRMLY UNITED
THROUGH ALL THE YEARS TO COME
BY FRIENDSHIP AND FOND MEMORIES OF YOUTH AND SCHOOL AND HOME.
WE'RE MEN OF MILTON HERSHEY
AND VOW TO THAT GREAT NAME
LIVES FILLED WITH STRENGTH AND HONOR TO ADD TO SPARTAN FAME.
